

THE LOBBY - U.S.A.

First West Coast Showing:

The suppressed Al Jazeera documentary on the Israel lobby in the U.S.

Al Jazeera produced a documentary on the Israel Lobby in Britain that had an explosive impact. Then they produced a documentary on the Israel Lobby in the United States. But powerful Israel partisans from the U.S. traveled to Qatar and succeeded in pressuring Al Jazeera not to release it. However, the attempt to censor this information failed when the film was leaked and posted on the Internet.

In the film, the head of Israel's Strategic Affairs Department was filmed by an undercover reporter discussing Israel's secret coordination with American pro-Israel groups:

"... the Israeli government decided to be a key player, it means a lot. We can bring things that usually don't exist in NGOs and civilian entities.... We are a different government working on foreign soil and we have to be very, very cautious. We have three different sub-campaigns which are very, very sensitive. Regarding data gathering, information analysis, working on activist organization, money trail. This is something that only a country, with its resources, can do the best..."

The screening will be followed by discussion.
